

Statutes / Erklärung über die Errichtung der Gesellschaft

WorldFirst

In Austria, the Articles of Association, also known as the Statutes or the Deed of Establishment (in the case of a sole shareholder), are a fundamental document that outlines the rules and regulations governing a company's internal operations.

Mandatory Clauses:

Company Name and Registered Office

Purpose of the Company

Share Capital and Contributions

Shareholders

Management and Representation

The image shows two sample pages of the 'Erklärung über die Errichtung der Gesellschaft' form. The left page is the first page, titled 'ERKLÄRUNG ÜBER DIE ERRICHTUNG DER GESELLSCHAFT'. It contains a declaration of intent to establish a company with limited liability (GmbH) and lists the mandatory clauses: 1. Firma, 2. Sitz, 3. Gegenstand des Unternehmens, 4. Stammkapital, 5. Dauer, Geschäftsjahr, 6. Geschäftsführung, Vertretung, and 7. Gesellschafterversammlung. The right page is the second page, which contains the details for each clause, including the company name, registered office, purpose, share capital, duration, management, and shareholders.
