Vedtægter

WorldFirst

In Denmark, the articles of association (Danish: vedtægter) are a foundational document outlining the basic structure and operations of a company, similar to a simplified version of a shareholders' agreement. They include essential information about the company, such as its name, objectives, share capital, and governance structure.

Sample 1

Sample 2