

STATUTEN

WorldFirst

In Liechtenstein, the document equivalent to articles of incorporation is called the "Articles of Association" (German: "Statuten"). These articles are a foundational document that outlines the structure, operations, and rules of a company. Key information includes the company's name, registered office, objectives, share capital details, and information about the board of directors.

*Sample
Coming Soon*