

Statuts / Acte de Constitution

WorldFirst

In Luxembourg, the "Articles of Association" (also known as the "statuts" or "acte de constitution") are the foundational documents of a company, defining its legal structure, operating rules, and governance. They are crucial for establishing the company as a legal entity and outlining its relationship with its members and third parties.

Sample