

Shareholder and Director form

Please complete the below with the Director and Ownership information of the company.

Why do we ask for owner / shareholder information?

In line with our due diligence requirements, we are required to know who we're dealing with and who is behind the company we are on-boarding as a client, this may include any ultimate beneficial owners who indirectly own a percentage of the company via parent company. You must be a director, partner or authorised member of the company to complete this form.
